History - Age of Invention - The Islamic Golden Age

I will lift up my eyes to the hills, where does my help come from? My help comes from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth."

Psalm 121 v 1-2

What should I know ...	I will be taught facts on...	Key Questions ...
I should know and understand significant aspects of the wider world. I should be able to frame historically valid questions and create my own structured accounts including written narratives and analyses 	That the Islamic Golden Age was centred around the city of Bagdad That the lands around the city were called a caliphate and they were controlled by a caliph That the city was an important centre for learning in science, maths, medicine and the arts That the House of Wisdom in the city was a centre for research and education and became the biggest library in the world That the Islamic Golden Age ended when the city was surrounded by then invaded by Mongol warriors.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> How does the Islamic Golden Age compare with the same time period in British history? Where and when was the Islamic Golden Age? How was the city of Baghdad built? What was daily life like? Why was the House of Wisdom famous? What kind of achievements were made during this period? Are they still in use / have they changed? Why did the Islamic Golden Age end? What were the consequences of this?
